

Ingenuity

Inventive skill or cleverness in confronting a challenge.

During the Holocaust there were individuals who displayed ingenuity in rescuing Jews.

Olga Kukovic
Croatia

Olga hid a Jewish brother and sister who were about to be arrested. She dressed them as Muslims and obtained fake identity documents for them. She then helped the disguised pair escape to safety in Italian-occupied territory.

Oskar Schindler
Poland

After Oskar was ordered to close his factory in Poland, his Jewish employees were in grave danger. He arranged to have nearly 1,100 “indispensable” workers transferred to a new factory in Czechoslovakia, saving their lives.
