

Whoever Saves a Single Life...

RESCUERS OF JEWS DURING THE HOLOCAUST A TRAVELING EXHIBIT

WHOEVER SAVES A SINGLE LIFE... RESCUERS OF JEWS DURING THE HOLOCAUST showcases some of those rare — but exceedingly important — instances where people fought to safeguard their Jewish fellow citizens during the Holocaust. In a time of overwhelming death and destruction, rescuers did not stand by silently. They chose another way, and their bravery offers us a glimmer of hope.

This is an easy-to-install exhibit of freestanding structures. It is non-linear, arranged thematically rather than chronologically, and is accessible to a variety of individuals, from middle school students to adults. The exhibit is ideal for small museums, historical societies, Holocaust centers and museums, community and cultural centers, synagogues and churches, libraries, schools, and universities.

EXHIBIT CONTENTS

■ Four freestanding modules with one panel on each side of the module (total of eight panels); three of the modules are 8' x 92" (LxH), and the fourth module is 34" x 83" (LxH). The exhibit comes in eight easy-to-move transporter cases (with wheels) and includes lights (four per 8' x 92" module). The panels focus on the following 12 topics/themes:

- History of the Holocaust
- The Jewish Foundation for the Righteous and its mission
- Webs of Survival: Rescue Networks
- Taking Action: Young Rescuers
- Faith in Action: Religious Rescue
- Shielding Our Citizens: Rescue in Denmark
- Outwitting Evil: Ingenuity in Rescue
- Against All Odds: Rescue in the Camps
- From Words to Deeds: Americans in Europe
- Defying Orders: Rescue in Uniform
- Precarious Life: Shelter and Hiding
- Envoys of Humanity: The Diplomats

INSTALLATION REQUIREMENTS

■ Exhibit space between 480 and 720 square feet. Ceiling height of at least 9 feet

EXHIBIT PERIOD

■ Minimum of four weeks with one additional week before and after for installation/de-installation and shipping. Most exhibit periods are four to eight weeks

EXHIBIT FEES

■ Exhibit fees are dependent on the exhibit period. Minimum fee is $1,200 for four weeks, plus shipping and insurance fees. Contact the JFR for specifics regarding fees

JFR SUPPORT

■ Exhibit brochure/handout template, invitation template, and press release template

■ Educator Resources, including a Teachers' Guide with suggested classroom activities

CONTACT

■ To book the exhibit, or for additional information, please contact the JFR's Education Department at 212.727.9955 or at jfr@jfr.org

Rescuers [from top to bottom]: Hanna Sachs* and Wiktoria Skrzypiec (Poland) – Jørgen Kieler (Denmark) – Nadezhda Salayova and Leonid Ruderman* (Belarus) – Hasmik and Tigran Tashitshyan (Ukraine)

*Jewish child saved

Map of Europe at the eve of World War II, August 1939: Courtesy of Jacques Chazaud